

Hi! I'm a Heartist
ALEX LIM

ABOUT ALEX LIM

Alex (@theunskilledboy), a visual artist with autism, creates abstract and pop-art inspired by nature and everyday objects. He uses vibrant colours and shapes and excels in various mediums such as acrylics, ink, oil pastels, and watercolours.

This year, Shaping Hearts 2023 is introducing event-exclusive merchandise, featuring the works of Alex. If his paintings catches your eye, be sure to check out and support the merchandise!

Follow Our Hearts

Pre-order
available until 31
October! *

FOLLOW OUR HEARTS

Pre-orders open!

Support our differently-abled artists by purchasing these exclusive Shaping Hearts merchandise! Join us in this movement to build a caring and inclusive community.

Pre-order our Exclusive Merchandise with a Cause

The upcoming Shaping Hearts 2023 event is set to be even more impressive than before, with the introduction of a new line of exclusive merchandise. The merchandise showcases the designs of Alex, one of the talented Heartists for this year's event. By purchasing this merchandise, you can support a good cause and help empower differently abled artists to pursue their passion in the arts. Your purchase will make a significant difference in their lives.